

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. rer. nat. Daniela Mier, Psychologist

Since 2014	Fellow of the WIN-Kolleg of the Heidelberger Akademie der Wissenschaften
Since 2013	Head of the research group Social-Affective Neuroscience and Experimental Psychology, Department of Clinical Psychology, Central Institute of Mental Health
2013-2015	Olympia-Morata Habilitation Funding of the University of Heidelberg
2010-2011	Postdoc-Fellowship of the DAAD, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California
2010	PhD in Psychology, Justus Liebig-University of Giessen
2007-2013	Research assistant at the Central Institute of Mental Health, University of Heidelberg / Medical faculty Mannheim
2005-2007	PhD-Fellowship of the University of Giessen, PhD-student at the Cognitive Neuroscience Lab, Justus-Liebig-University of Giessen
Since 2005	Postgradual training as a behavioral therapist
2005	Diploma in Psychology, Justus Liebig-University of Giessen

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Social cognition, schizophrenia, borderline personality disorder, psychopathy, hypochondriasis, functional magnetic resonance imaging